NEW YEARS EVE

doubles bubble

Before producing music, I used to be a rapper in a hip hop band called DTF. I was also the DJ in the band and I used to play at Soundclashes in between the two sounds (Soul, Hip Hop & sh!t). After a while we did a track called "In Your Neighbourhood" which was a Big Daddy Kane style of track, the track was made at a friends house - "Nick" who went on to become the Bassheads.

My musical tastes are mainly hip hop and reggae and I think that is reflected in the music which I make. I also like soul but more street soul than ballads. I like the jump up shit like Swingbeat I was well wrapped up in that.

Where I live everybody wanted to hear good music but we had nowhere to go, Bradford was the only real area with 'Time & Place' and the Sound Yard - that is where I first met the rest of Unique 3. They were slamin' it in there week in week out, that was the first crowd to hear 'The theme' - Dub Plate Style' it worked there so 500 got pressed and the rest is history really.

After a few 12"s, an album and more PAs than I can count, Virgin the company that owned Ten records was bought by Sony and all the acts that weren't making them serious wedge were out on their arses, we were still making underground music day in day out at this point, but now there was nowhere for it to go and besides this, I think we were getting a bit fed up with giving material to Major labels and them watering it down, we knew they weren't doing it right!

So about a year ago we started Flex Records, at the moment it's just Lisa and I (my girlfriend) who are actually involved in the day to day running of the label from new artists to designing bags and centres. At the start of this year I was getting more out of manufacturing records than making them because previously it had all been done by Virgin and it was all new to me.

When I start work on a track I'll usually be sitting downstairs and I'll get an idea or a sample in my head and I just have to go upstairs and deal with it. I have to work like that. My equipment is never off and even when I'm not working or I've just finished a track everything will still be on. I find that so important because just turning all the shit on and loading discs can kill the vibe for me.

The biggest tracks we've had to date on Flex for sales have to be 'What Ya Gonna Do' and 'Retreat' which both sold very well but as far as personal recognition goes the 'Low Key Movements' EP on reinforced did us the most justice but that could have been because Goldie was on it and he was the one who signed it to the label. I'd like to think that the track did well because it was good but I know for a fact that it got good help because it was on such a strong label and because such an influential person was on it.

I've recently done some remix work including 4 hero's 'Universal Love' a few bits for Labello, Micky Finn and I are working on a remix for Top Cat. I've also just got the discs for "I spy" for Monk, predator for Andy C, and Maximum style for Tom & Jerry. I don't mind remixes because when I was DJ'ing in a past life I loved to get a remix for the deck to deck mixing aspect. I think it enables a DJ to express themselves more and work more as a DJ.

In the new year we plan to put all our old samples on each of our releases we figure that we don't need them anymore and it gives all budding producers some food to play with.

We've also just signed a Reggae artist Debo General to the label who we hope will move the label on to a more meaningful musical feel like goldies 'inner city life' remixes by roni size and Tom & Jerry they are some serious tunes. I find a lot of the tunes out there at the moment are more clever than musically meaningful.

Hype's ripe selection

Before producing I was doing a bit of DJ'ing at house parties and illegals this was back in 1991. I then went on to play on a radio called Sweet FM. I then linked up with the Scientist from 'The Exorcist' fame and we did a couple of tracks together one of which being Rumble which I took to DMS who was A&R man for Production House at the time, he liked it and the rest is history really.

My musical backgrounds are quite wide really, because I've been brought up to all different types such as Deep Motown from my mum, hip-hop, rare groove and soul from my brother, and my sister got into house from as early as 88. It was around about this time that I started listening to Fantasy FM and Friends FM. Currently I'm into a lot of stuff ranging from Foul Play to Dillinja. Usually when I start work on a track its something that's been an idea in my head for a while. Rumble which happens to be my biggest selling track so far only took 6 hours to produce also I've got a track which is coming out soon on Roughtone plus I have Special Dedication forthcoming and from the reactions I've had so far it should go really well. My goal at the moment is to get my own studio set up which will enable me to sit down and spend more time on tracks and I'd also like to get out there more as a DJ. I use Randall, Kenny Ken, Ron, Grooverider, Mickey Finn and Hype to promote my music via dubplate and I rate Foul Play, Dillinja, Moving Shadow, Flex and everyone at the De'Underground stables in the producing world.

Shouts: Groove, Kenny Ken, Randall, Brockie, Rap, Flex, Mike, Fats, Marlon, Chris, Babylon Crew, Dave, Stretch, Dillinja, Lemon D and Everyone that knows me.

I'd just like to add that there's a DJ on Don FM going under the name of DJ Nut Nut and I'm not happy.

TIGER STYLE - (KROME & TIME REMIX) GANJA RECORDS
When you cross teatin with ganja this is the result. Krome & Time getting busy on the remix tip. Bringing the track to an even more jumped up level than the original destined to be large in 95 this is one of the many remixes due on the ganja label in '95 (big up).

AQUARIUS - DOLPHIN TUNE - GOOD LOOKIN

Been around on plate for ages this is a personal fave of mine on the intelligent tip (but not over intelligent) this tune drops every where I play it. Love the sounds of the strings and dolphins mixed with the sheer power of the amen drums which makes this tune a smasher.

GOTTA BE REAL (RUKAS MIX) - PASCAL & MONTY - FRONTLINE RECS

Rare groove introduction this is a very simple but very effective track easy to mix with b-line and wootang in there for good measure. One of the zillions of tracks due for release on frontline next year (big up)

STEPPERS - FOUL PLAY - MOVING SHADOW

Drum & bass style with a powerful AAVE / YO vocal running through drops wicked at big raves very easy to mix so Im sure nuff DJs will be slipping it in their sets when on promo another stomping stepper from the Moving Shadow label due for release in Jan '95.

HOT DIS YEAR - RUS DE TOX + H.P. - SUBLIMINAL RECS

One for the Jump up Jungle Crew. Nice and flowing arrangement this gets your lighter burning. Believe me nice B-line and once again drops in the mix - Ruff!!

R.I.P. REMARC - DUBPLATE

Sound Bwoy killing business + definitely not for the light hearted, aggressive from start to finish. Ruff drums - Ruff bass - Ruff samples, what can I say but Ruff.

DJ PHANTASY - A KIND OF LOVE - LIQUID WAX.

Nice string intro that drifts along with floaty noises till the beats drop with a touch of a garage stab. Non stop action with the beats just rollin neatly!!! This track has a good groove to it so watch out for the release in Feb 95, one of many that Liquid Wax have in their volts.. Respect and have a jolly festive season from Hype.

JUNGLE THE AND MEDIA

The Other day, I was watching one of those kiddies TV shows on a Saturday morning. They interviewed the girl from 2.4 Children and asked her what music she liked, the reply was 'Junglist Massive' You know boo yakali!. The reason I've mentioed this is just to show how Jungle is now nationally accepted as part of the mainstream pop scene. Everyone wants a jungle remix. The present Dawn Penn Tune has had a mix (No, No, No, This Ain't Jungle). Thanks to Apachi and largely M Beat, Jungle is all the rage according to Heaven and Hell. So now we stand back and wait for the backlash. I predict no more than 2 jungle tunes will hit the top 40. Following that Radio 1, Capital, and even Kiss will Drop Jungle quicker than Madonna switches boyfriends. These stations are playing jungle because the Dave's, Sharon's an Tracey's are buying a couple of tunes. They come up on the airwaves like an uninvited guest at a family party, won't be there for long. I recall Fabio and Grooverider being unhappy with the term Jungle saying it's racist. Now it's rammed down everyone's throats. All the majors want to sign a jungle label, but when have you heard on radio other than 'Incredible' and 'Original Nuttah' Point taken? Good read on...

I head a little story the other day, have you heard 'Girl If Ever' by Kinetic? It has a new edition sample (remember them?) and is remixed by Johnny L well... the tune was shaping up to be a monster due out on Boogie Beat Records, a small independent out of North London. The lick was going to be bigger than they could handle, so they go to the big boys for backing. The big boys get a big presale and its all smiles... oops. Don't forget to clear the sample!! What's that? No permission so the major goes from being your best friend to someone you can't even get on the phone. Andy from Boogie Beat says don't worry I'll put it out with my limited resources. The Major says don't press it up because they don't want him making any money without them. He pressed anyway then finds that some shops won't stock the record because they have been told not to buy by Big Brother! It still hit the streets, but did not make the impact it should have. I'm not going to name the Major, a lot of people know already, if you are one of the record shop bods feel very ashamed. If a tune is good, sell it. Don't be told or bullied into killing the music.

Point Taken? Good.

What were you doing before producing? Listening... I got into the production side of things a couple of years ago. Before that I was into hip-hop, reggae, jazz, rare groove etc - as well as techno and house.

I've never got into DJ'ing I've always been more interested in making music. Two or three years ago I bought a sampler and a computer and that's when it all started.

My musical influence: People like John Coltrane to Carl Craig & from BDP to Lonnie Liston Smith.

When I start a track I usually have a vague idea of the type of overall sound that I am after. The way it goes from there depends on what sounds I try out as I go along - some sounds can completely change the mood of the track and take it in another direction. It's really a process of experimentation and seeing what works.

My biggest track to date? Probably "Jump Mkl" on Certificate 18 Records. Photek Nol has probably been my biggest release this year.

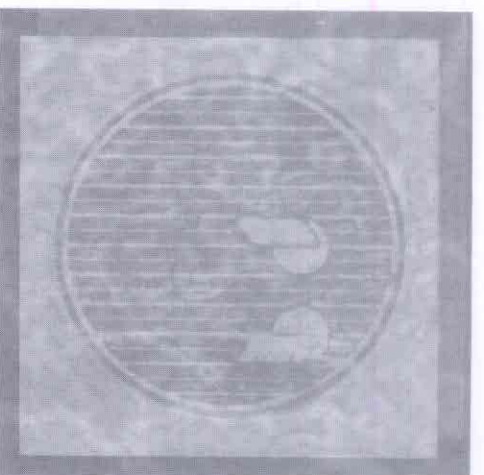

Photek is basically a personal project for my own work - although 1995 will see new material from other artists - the first two being Peshay and Fabio. I've done work under a few different names like System X, Sentinel, Aquarius, Phaze 1. I've got a tune coming out on Prototype Records in the near future. Currently I am working on a project for Metalheads.

I will be doing some remix work for Good Looking and Metalheads, which I am looking forward to.

I haven't done any PA's as Photek or Studio Pressure. I did PA's at the Astoria and the Lazerdrome with Rob from Origination (Rude Boy Records).

That was in '93, but I've been talking to Sarah at Groove Connection about setting up a Photek PA for next year. What DJ's promote your music?

Bukem, Peshay, Fabio, Grooverider, ray Keith, Nicky Blackmarket, Gachet, Doc Scott, Tayla, Lee, Kemistry & Storm, Ratty, The Underground FM Crew and Digital - who I have been doing some engineering for - a track which will be coming out next year on Timeless Recordings.

Producers? Goldie, Bukem, Peshay, Grooverider, Wax Doctor, to name a few. I also rate sounds of life, who also go under the name Source Direct. From the techno side of things I rate Blackdog, Carl Craig, Mark Broom and Baby Ford etc.

I have quite a wide taste in music, I listen to a lot of jazz and techno. I like deep music and music with rhythms - drums and bass.

Photek

The future - to keep making music, building on what I've done so far. I'd like to see the boundaries of the music getting pushed forward, a bit more experimenting with different styles. I'd hate to see the music get stuck in a rut, but there are certain aspects of the scene at the moment that are not helping. Releases due out in the near future:

The Physical - Photek 3
The Water Margin - Photek4
Relics Studio Pressure (Cert 18)
Pulse of Life - Sentinel (Basement)
The Dolphin - Aquarius (Good Looking)
Drift to the Centre
Phaze One - Phaze One (Odyssey)

A BIT OF JUNGLE FEVER

Jungle Fever has been running very successfully for over a year and has the greatest following since Moses parted the seas. Eastman talks to Atmosphere about why they are so successful and what he believes the future of jungle to be.

Now that the roots of jungle have been firmly based in London, with Kool FM running since '91, going over to Amsterdam this is proof that it has begun to spread rapidly with popularity.

The name of Jungle Fever was inspired by the Spike Lee film of the same name about black and white relationships. It took off from the start with their first rave in August '93 being packed out.

Eastman believes it took off from the start because it was one of the first raves to put on outright absolute jungle.

When the word gets out that there's a Jungle Fever rave on people go to extremes to witness its presence from forging the tickets to trying to get in the back door of the venue or pretending to be DJ's.

So why do some people become possessed when they hear about a Jungle Fever rave? And why does it attract such dedicated followers? Its probably because they deliver more than what their flyers could ever promise to present Jungle Fever correctly - not half heartedly by encouraging dismissal of prejudices and welcoming people with mutual respect. Eastman seems to see jungle as more of a champas bash than on 'E'. He explains it a bit more to do with the infectious rhythm of the music which creates its own type of happy high, than other types of dance music which are more 'E' orientated. Also music does a lot for bringing people together through an understanding of the music.

In its early days a lot of people perceived it as a black thing, but Eastman explains its come a long way since then. With Fever no one misses out they believe in taking jungle to the people instead of people feeling they have to come to London for it. Between Jungle Fever and its crew they have been about Europe and around the world. When they went to Coventry, the Midlands and the countryside it meant their London followers and a whole new audience who are not as exposed to jungle could not only meet they would not normally meet but could also experience jungle on home turf which means more people will go.

When Eastman was asked what direction he expected jungle to go in the future, he replied that it was something that was growing all the time and uses the example of four Dundee lads to emphasise its pulling power. They left Dundee at 9.00 am to ensure they arrived in time for the first Stevenage rave which started at 11.00 pm.

Up country a lot of promoters are getting into jungle, among the station Kool FM can be seen to be the hallmark for carrying jungle across the waters to the States & Europe where in some parts of Germany they are getting into breakbeat jungle and Jamaica where they opened up to DJ Ron and MC Five-O.

Jungle itself will soon begin to create megastarts in its own tight with feature's already appearing on TV and in popular press. Eastman adds that actual personalities are already forming from the jungle scene.

The message of jungle is everywhere, the vibe is the same as the original Summers of Love. Jungle is simply Love, Peace and Respect.

Shouts to: Smurf, Brockie, Raga Twins, all the DJ's and Crew, MC's, Producers, Lighting, Sound, all the Staff, Kool FM and Promise adn anyone involved plu Susan, Melissa and Hayley.

Aphrodite AKA

A-zone AKA

Alladin AKA

Urban Shake down

Before I was producing music I was promoting parties up North. While I was still at college, I did a few with a friend under the name of Aphrodite and they were in Leamington.

I used to DJ out about once a month but this phased out somewhat as the production side of things took over, I am currently playing on Pulse 90.6FM every Sunday afternoon.

It was about 3 years ago that I first got the taste for producing. I used to make a few bits indoors and I then met Micky Finn in city sounds in London and I played him a few of the tracks and he just jumped on the stuff and suggested that we should work on a track together and then came 'Some Justice' as our first tune, we also have a couple more Urban Shakedown bits planned for next spring.

I got into the house scene in the summer of '88 and before that I was into Electro. I am very influenced by the house vibe in what I produce today.

At the moment I am currently involved with labels such as Alladin and Aphrodite of which I own both and Urban Shakedown which is myself and Mickey Finn, Urban Wax and I also released stuff on Whitehouse under the name of A-Zone. Aside from Some Justice, Calling the People under the name of A-Zone has been my biggest track to date with 'We Enter' on Alladin and 'Big boo yad' not far behind.

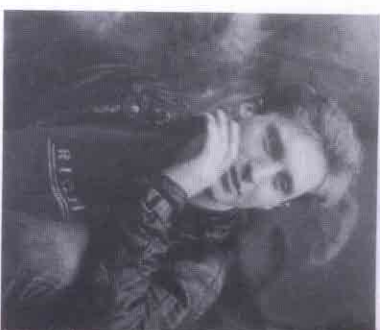

Generally I have a lot of ideas for tracks, sometimes I put them on a dictaphone or others I could get up in the middle of the night and do it.

I recently did a remix of "Drowning" for Tone Def records plus a remix for a little dub reggae outfit which will be coming out on the Skunk record label. I've never actually done any PA's and I don't think I would unless I knew I could go and do a good show, the last thing I want is to walk on stage with a dot machine.

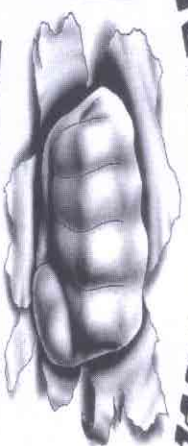

I have been approached by a few people with possible tracks for the label but nothing yet has been good enough to put out.

In the Spring, I hope to be releasing an Aphrodite recordings album and I feel I've got enough material plus remixes of the bigger tracks, we will also be releasing a brand new mix of Some Justice in the spring featuring the vocal talents of Debo General which I think is going to do really well. Other producers I rate are Roni Size who is doing some damage at the moment, Philly Blunt, some of the Moving Shadow stuff and I think it's difficult to merit single producers, but I'm finding a lot of nice white labels coming through at the moment. To promote my music via Dubplate I use Micky Finn, Rap, Randall and anyone else who requests it as long as the numbers don't get too high, and when it comes to test press stage I make sure everyone gets sorted. Forthcoming tracks to include "Big boo yad" remix and "Shine" on Aphrodite plus Alladin 3 which is due for release next spring.

Shouts - Micky Finn, Rap, Randall, Gachet, Hype, Phantasy, Tony B, QED and anyone else I forgot.

EAUZONE

Eauzone is a new club just opened in Woolwich town centre London. Every Friday you can witness 9 hours of drum and bass supplied by Easy D, Class A and Phase 3 from Kool FM plus guests weekly. The club itself is a refurbished theatre and believe me when I say the layout is ruff. All walls are presented in a very psychedelic but artistic fashion with a crisp 20K system and more lights than you can handle. The main hall has 2 stages plus a balcony with suspended speakers at the corners.

If you would like any info about this new and exciting venue phone John or Diane on 0181 854 2828.

HELTER SKELTER - 25 NOVEMBER - SANCTUARY

Arrived at Sanctuary at approximately 2.00 am to witness Helter Skelters 41st event. Dougal was playing, supplying the usual happy/uplift tracks he is renowned for. The crowd did seem to be rather young in places but none the less it had a good turnout from all over. As usual the lineup comprised of an even mix of the best of both worlds. With an eye twisting light show and impressive stage set up. Next up was the king of the swing Grooverider entertaining the masses playing across the board, one thing that always gets me about the Sanctuary is the low sound levels - it seemed to be OK if you were in the middle of the venue, but at the sides and back it's quite a let down. Hype was on next playing tracks like 31

Seconds and Take Me Up amongst others. Outside was the chill out bit - bit too chilled out if you ask me and there were tables and chairs, hot dog van and a fatground ride (which I thought was a good idea in case you get bored or hot). 5.15 am - 6.00 am saw Randall - oh my gosh - tearin plenty of drums - livin' jibby. I unfortunately had to leave at 6.00 am to give out magazines so I didn't get to hear Slipmatts set but everyone was on a buzz when they left so there you go. Overall a good party Dave, see you in '95.

UNITED DANCE & IMPACT RECORDS SHOWCASE

2ND DECEMBER STEVENAGE LEISURE CENTRE
They promised a special night, and it was definitely that. We arrived early, only to see a massive queue but we got inside in half an hour, maximum respect to security for that one.

As usual, United Dance cut no corners. These events are always top class, and every one held at Stevenage this year has been rammed with ravers having a brilliant time, and I'm proud to be one of them! They attract the right kind of people, which is what is needed to create such an amazing atmosphere (no pun intended). Everything on the flyer was there, the massive inflatables, the dance platforms etc, it is such a good night out.

The music was unreal, I haven't heard of a lot of the records played. My highlights were the live PA's Seduction and Dougal, Sy and Unknown, and Vibes. When Vibes played 'Music's So Wonderful' he nearly lifted the roof off! The whole place was kicking.

I also gave 10/10 to DJ Sy's scratching, if you don't remember it you couldn't have been there. DJ Seductions set, he is a wicked DJ, and DJ Slipmatt, the great man himself, but unfortunately, he played last, and I was too knackered by then to dance, but believe me, there were enough people who danced right to the end. Lucky Bastards!

Anyone who didn't go to this event missed out BIG TIME. It was one of my fave events of the whole year. PS See you all at DREAMSCAPE New Years Eve!

Dear Atmosphere.

Firstly, maximum respect for being the best magazine on the streets. The reason for writing this letter is because I wanted to get my views across and the best way to do so would be printing it in Atmosphere. I am very amazed about the number of under 18 kids getting off their necks and buzzing at a rave. I went to a party the other week (not mentioning any names), and bowled into the girls toilets like you do when you want to go. I walked in just minding my own business when a girl came up to me and started chatting. Just by looking at her I could tell she wasn't old enough to be in the venue. She told me how she was buzzing on 1 1/2 pills and a gram of billy. I then asked how old she was and when she told me I felt sick. She told me she was 14 in a couple of months. The girl was only 13 years of age!

By letting these kids into a venue it's influencing them to do drugs that their bodies just can't handle at such a young age. I know that Security have lots to do in that one night, but making sure that people are of the right age is their job too. It's also breaking the law.

My little brother is 13 years old, and if I found out that he was doing drugs, I would cry.

In the perfect world, people would care more about other people and things would be done to make this stop.

IPEACE!!

KOOL FM 3RD BIRTHDAY PARTY

Maximum respect to the Kool FM for a wicked night, down at the Astoria, have never seen the Astoria this good.

All DJ's and MC's on top form as usual, lights and lasers and system totally wicked. The place was completely rammed wall to wall.

The atmosphere outside was totally moody due to some troublemakers, don't bother coming next time! But once inside everyone was on a good vibe, hungry to hear fresh dub-plates. Nuff ruff tunes were dropped.

Karen & Dark Noise Original

Respect to Charlie and Denizli, never got in - unlucky and respect to Mandy and Garth.

Everyone at Atmosphere would like to wish DJ Peshay a speedy recovery as he has not been feeling too well over the last few months - Get Well Soon Pesh.

DJ RAP

We would like to send our apologies out to DJ Rap concerning a club review published in our last issue saying "I walked in on DJ Rap's set, let's just say she didn't have a good night". Since this was written we've found out that a) she didn't play on that night and b) she doesn't play for AWOL at all. So, apologies for any damage done and we can assure you that the writer of the article has been dealt with accordingly.

MINDWARP

FRIDAY 25TH NOVEMBER 94

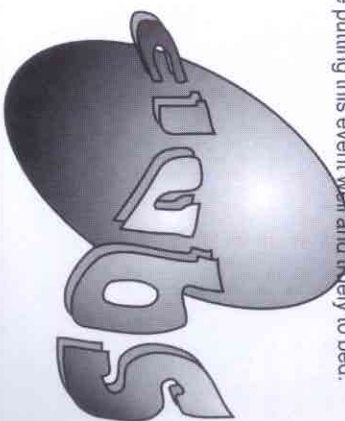

After a short break the mindwarps were back! Larger than life and at a new bigger venue in Colchester, the Charterhall (big shout out to the management) Colchesters foremost purpose built venue for top events "You know what I'm saying".

The installation of backdrops by chaos, lights and sounds was overwhelming and tantalizing to the senses. Lights were supplied by Cue lighting and (Lawrence what a dude!), 2 huge projections screens either side of the dj console projected all manner of wierd things all night long. The occasional link to the crowd onto the screens pleased the punters untold.

On top of this was a blinding multi-coloured lasers system which zapped, curved and done all kinds o wierd undescrivable effects all night. Plus 2 pukka robzaps, strobing and filling the arena with awesome lighting (cheers boys). Froggu's usual ASS rig cracked banged and broke all sound levels.

At the start of the evening considering a 6.30pm start there were about 900 people queuing. The place was kicking by 7.30pm.

Spin Doctors for the night - First up on the wheels of Steel the one and only Andy Burr. Playing a wicked warm up set which set the standard for the evening. A compilation of banging trance and a bit of techno slid onto the decks towards the end. Ellis Dee, played a scintillating Happy hardcore set, unusual because we know he likes his Jungle blinding set though. Dougal, played lots of happy anthems, pleasing and keeping the crowd rockin. Seduction played a selection of dub plates wicked. Slipmatt that well seasoned spin doctor played tuff drums and bass and some awesome techno. Clarke played a hard techno set steaming at the edges of insanity, Joker (who) the other half of triple X promotions played an unusual set of cracking tunes. Setting the standard for Worzal to play the night in a bouncy rockin techno style putting this event well and truly to bed.

BABYLON - DEE JAY RECORDS

What can I say, this one's an absolute tearer. Wicked strings, tuff drums and loads of atmosphere accompanied by 'All The Youth Shall Witness The Day When Babylon Shall Fall' vocal - oh my gosh. 15/10

SECOND MOVEMENT RECORDS NO.2

The lads from Birmingham do it again with this deep roller. Twisted almost acid bass and rollin' beats make this one a funky stomper fit for anyone's box - ruff. 10/10

SPLASH - MUSICAL BISS/ROUGHER REMIX

These boys from Grays release the 4th Splash excursion. Wicked drums on both sides, twist out amen all over the place if ya like b-line and drums you'll love this. 10/10

SHARON FORESTER - LOVE INSIDE - FFRK

FFRK are back on the case, this one has mixes by Rap, Da Intalex and Ray Keith plus an original. My fave is Da Intalex mix heavy b-lines nice vocals something different. Rap's mix is on a mellow tip. Ray's mix is on the amen tip. 9/10

PROPPING SCIENCE 4 - SAFARI SOUND

Introduced with an atmospheric string, then murmuring vocals which are closely followed by raw beats. The break comes and you run to the DJ to find out what the Fk this tune is - ruff, melodic, raw, tearing - big toes up 12/10.

LITING SPIRITS - AWARENESS

Deep stringy intro, rolling beats with screaming vocal and Amen struts then comes 'conscious awareness' vocal which rolls out into a nice selection of wheel up style beats and bass then amen 155 nods per minute - Rounuff 13/10

ADVENTURES IN 3D - BEYOND THE RAINBOW - ROQUE

Nice stringy, piano e, floaty intro which is dropped into 'Rhythms' haven't used yet vocal, the jump up amen used next is as chopped as ever using nice bass, and earthy rhythms, I think given the chance this tune could be quite big. 10/10.

DEEPER LIFE - REMIX - BACK 2 BASICS

If you haven't heard this you must be deaf. Absolutely T for the Tabulous. Absolutely huge deeeeeeep then swirling mash up beats galore. Your granny wouldn't like it, another first for the B2B crew. Ruff, twist out - rewind - ruff said. 12/10

LIFTIN SPIRITS - BROKIN OUT - STAKKA & K TEE

Nice stringy intro with bass struts then comes deep super stuffy beats - rolling. This is a wicked roller start to finish with a nice string break midway. B-side is a nice melodic track on the Dillinja tip - funky. 10/10

BOTH ENDS UNDERKUT - REMIXES - MENDOZA

I didn't actually realise what this was a remix of until it turned up. About 2 years ago there was a Mendoza release with the original 'Get Raw' sample in it (that was it). My fave has to be Side A1 of this double 10" pack. Definitely creating a similar vibe to the original, ruff B-line and gangster beats - ruff 9/10

PURPLATE STYLE - MARVELLOUS CAINE - SUB BASE

Funky beats in intro, then comes 'Purple Plate Style' vocal from an old Labello release I think next tear up amen a true saffier for the masses with a ragga vocal, twist up beats, soothing breakdown, ruff - buy on sight. 10/10

MENSA - WHITE ROCK - TEARIN VINYL

Deep and mysterious intro with militant beats for about a minute then 'Baby' vocal followed by beats tuff enough to blow Santa's hat off - oh my gosh - ho ho ho. Mash up - I love this tune - aaaaagh - help run to your shop now. 20/10

VINYL CONFLICTS OWN - TEARIN VINYL

You've got to admit this label is doing some serious damage at the moment and this track is not a disappointment. Eerie intro and mellow bass fuses with gangsta beats and a 'Welcome to deathrow' vocal. Then comes the drop mad twisted b-line and tappy beats. Can't wait to hear this on a system. Ruff. 12/10

007 - GAI GIVE UP - ROQUE RECORDINGS

Intro'd with harps and strings joined by funky little ragga chat and choppy beats, nice little vibe created by this one. Typical ragga jump up track - ruff. 9/10

THE DUDE - WILD TRIP - ROQUE RECORDINGS

Mellowed out intro which soon changes when we hear amen comes in tear out drum and bass ruff - ruff edits. Gets a bit monotonous midway but then tears out even more - good little 3 tracker though. 8/10

New Cru - Run Come - Labello

Fave mix is the Flip on the b-Side 'Run Come' vocal charmed throughout with the usual amen flavour and ragga lyrics. Definitely on the tear out tip. 8/10

DJ Nut - The Dream - Raughtone

Wicked choppy beats, funky as fk accompanied by nice bass and a ragga chat thrown in for good measure.

Flip is more of a stringy affair with swirly beats - deep and delicious. 9/10

Fallout - Storm Warning - Raughtone
Not being a great lover of fallouts old stuff, this one surprised me. Glean ruff D & E, massive string intro which glides into some lovely, smashing great amen on a Crystal type of tip - 10/10.

Stamina - Dream Team - Sub Base

'Jump around if you have the stamina' intro'd on a ragga jump up tip then comes dread bass style b-line and beats that just keep building - tear out. 10/10

Also watch out for Tribal Instincts of Flavour Trax, State of Mind on Labello, Shining on Labello, Crash on Sub Base, Touching Down on Photek, Mental Patient by Area 39 on Bear Necessities, Jack Speed and Mister E on Rogue Trooper Records, Lion Heart and Special Request on Strictly Underground, Kelles and Presha 3 on Certificate 18 and the 12 track Sour album due soon.

adams HOUSE

Well the season of Christmas Spirit is here but unfortunately the vinyl tends to die away for a few weeks, so don't be surprised if there's not as much about over the Christmas/New Year holiday, but there is always something to mention.

In with the UK stuff we have Raw Tunes - Vol 4 (Yum Yum) with a reworking of Cajmeres 'Brighter Days' being the better track, Scope - Bacchanal (Sperm) another EP hard house all the way with acid lines and mad chanting dudes, Tonja dantzler - In and Out of My Life (FFRR) has finally got its belated UK release, you've heard it and you'll probably buy it, The Shaker - Mooncat (Ugly Bug) pumpkin house in typical British form with pianos and toxic two sounds, Li Kwan - I Need A Man (Decon) more hard hitting house with familiar samples and big breakdowns that will keep all dancefloors at full capacity, the new Olympic Records 12 is by Espirit - Do You Want It Funky? (Cheeky) groovy and funky vocal house, Hi-Lux - Feel It (Cheeky) a double pack promo in a Euro Dub party style with with yer hands in the air (or up someone's skirt) type tune for those people who tend to 'have it' when they are out, K&M those people who brought you Funk & Drive have a new 12" called Rappin it Up more funky beats similar to their previous track but this one contains an Adam Ant style sample whic fits in very well - something original - Lisa Moorish - Just the Way it is (Go Beat) vocals in a garage or hard style whatever you like this double pack has got it, Virtue - Feeling Good (Wired) has been remixed more pianos this time keeping this great pumping, nipping over the sea and Strictly Rhythm are still throwing out their 12"s with Caucasian Boy and Inner Souls doing the business, Ralphie Y Raul -

Hispaniks (Freshly Squeezed) is a grinding tune with squelchy noises DJ Zky & Daniel P - Didn't You Know (Stickman) typical deep detroit style house with a woman saying something about Mick Jagger and Mars bars!! Roy Davis - People From Mars (Power Music) more of that Duke Vasquez style repetitive deep Lectroluv (8 Ball) more of that deep powerful house with various mixes both vocal and funky, another piece of the Morel story is here with Morel's Grooves Pt 7 (Strictly) more on the jazzy tip, EG - Fullalove - Didn't I Know (Emotive) pumping house with house beats sliding in and out and something about Diva reporting to the dancefloor - oh yes Mr Vasquez mixed it up as well.

Well as we move on to a new year I hope that we leave the re-issuing - remixing - covering behind and start throwing down some open minded styles to the dancefloors, see you in january '95 - Adam Carter.

SLIPMATT Reveals

RAMOS, SUPREME AND SUNSET REGIME - HARMONISE - HECTIC RECORDS

Another hectic tune to hit the streets with that typical southcoast style. Harmonise starts with a long intro which builds into an energetic breakbeat stomper. Then comes the vocals and piano which fit each other perfectly to give that Ramos, Supreme and Sunset Regime finish. An excellent follow up to Night Raver.

SY AND UNKNOWN - D-DAY - UNIVERSAL RECORDS

Those Unknown drum patterns sound familiar on this heavy slice of rave. The piano line sounds familiar too, from back in 89 and the original was kickin as well. This record definitely has the Sy and Unknown touch with loads of rave sounds and all the right ingredients, and the AA side is just as good.

CHEDDAR - VOL 1
 Chopped up breaks over a 909 kick drum, then into a familiar rave sound to get the energy flowing. The record is then joined by some atmospheric strings followed by a subtle but good piano line. All in all excellent tune but surprisingly not too cheesy.

DOUGAL & ERUPTION - I'M GONNA GET YA - UNITED DANCE RECORDS

This has to be one of my favourite dubplates over the last few weeks. The ingredients go together so well with excellent strings and some unusual sounds with a few different sound effects. A definite anthem to start 95 with a hardcore bang.

DJ BRISK - MAKE IT ROUGH - REMIX RECORDS

This man has really started to make his mark this year and will surely get bigger in '95 with releases like this under his belt. Brisk has a hard and fast techno influence in his music, which combined with his breaks and happy riffs, makes a kicking combination. The piano goes perfectly with the "Deeper" sample. Watch out for Brisk and Slipmatt.

BILLY BUNTER & JDS - LET IT LIFT YOU - JUST ANOTHER LABEL

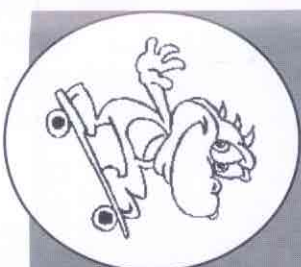

The uplifting sounds of Labyrinth's Billy Bunter & JDS are captured brilliantly on this cut. Both sides are stomping, the b-side being more techno influenced. Both sides are combinations of piano, rare stabs and vocals and are both 100% for the crowd. Yet another one to watch out for in 1995.

GOSSOVER

The mainstream techno review
compiled by Matt Parks.

Hybrid 2 Boosted by Planet Rhythm
Orange vinyl 3 track acid E.P with no info of production. Side A track 1 is a must with a heavy 303 B-line and kick to compliment, making this track a definite floor filler.

Side A track 2 is more trancey and experimental in my opinion. Side B of this 12" has a back to the old beats and 303 kickin off. Over all a good buy.

Jiri Ceiver, Harthouse Frankfurt 058
2 track 12" with 2 tracks of a difference.

Side A track entitled VACUI stomps along for 9 mins at 154 bpm and gets the mind working overtime with the high mid frequency range that peices the ears, then is soothed by atmospheric sounds that blend along with a typical Harthouse feel.

Side B is more to my liking on this 12"

with a track entitled LOOM which also trips along for 9 mins but at only 126 bpm. On +8 on your 1200's this track is bliss, with more 303 analog strings and more,
making this 12" over all an excellently produced 12".

E.F.3.A Tricks and Smirk's E.P Superstition:
Recs

4 tracks of which I feel could have been better produced. Side A track 1 COLA COMA and side A track 2 TRUE SIDER both have large break downs which for sure would leave a crowd standing waiting impatiently for the kick to come back, making you wish you'd never played it.

Side B track 1 GOT DA PARAS is my choice on this 12" as it's the only track I would drop, though this track is quite minimal with only beat bass a noise and some 303 thrown in towards the end, it has the expection of no drastic breakdowns. The 2nd track on the B side DB TRADERS is more on the ambient tip, with plenty of analog and atmospheric sounds to keep the mind occupied at the worst of times, a definate for any chill out.

ELECTRIC UNIVERSE, Spirit Zone Rec's
4 track hardtrance E.P, this 12" is a sure thing and my top choice, to pick a word, excellent, and would get the dancefloor moving for sure. My only criticism is that on three of the tracks the kick is a bit low. My favourite track is track 1 side B SOLAR ENERGY which has no problem with the kick. All together this 12" is analog heaven with all the exceptional break beats flung in here and there, strings and atmospheric riffs to trance the mind, and the energy to make you wanna go for it.

AFFIE YUSUF & NIGEL CASEY, Symphony of Life E.P. 909 Preservation Records

4 tracker 3 of which are on a trance tip and the other which is more minimal, and is the track of my choice, entitled HOUSE HALLUCINATES and a definite floor filler, with a strong bass, beat and a screaming analog riff of a difference which makes this track individual from the rest.

SPICELAB, A Day On our Planet, Harthouse
LP09.

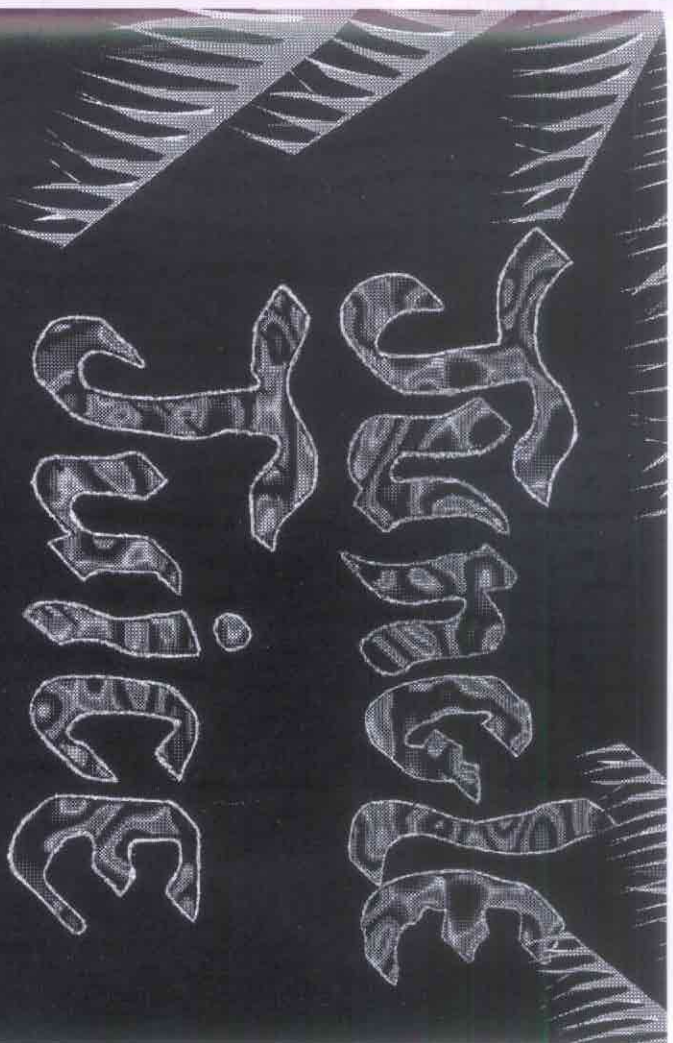

Yet another masterpiece from Spicelab
but not one of which I would drop in a club or Rave. And probably was produced for a personal listing rather than be played out.
The tracks FALLING, WE GOT SPICE, A DAY
ON OUR PLANET & PLANET SPICE range from 135 to 148 bpm and all have a playing time of 16 to 19 mins making this a good investment for sure. Each track has an influence of ambient feel and directing them more into a acid trance feel. Each track flows from one element into another making this L.P. unique and individual.

BIONIC CREW, Final Entrance, Influence
Recs 033

Although having a choice of 3 other releases to veiw from INFLUENCE, this is the one of my choosing. All tracks are based with the 303 and with a beat to boot! Side B track 1 WEVE GOT THE LOVE

OF LIFE would play well any where with the Happy vibe it produces, as does side A track 1 FINAL ENTRANCE, & side A track 2 GO INSIDE. All in all a pretty happy bit of vinyl.

VANDALISM IS THE #1 RECREATION OF OUR GENERATION. MAYBE NOT EVERYONE WILL ADMIT IT BUT BREAKING STUFF IS, AND WILL ALWAYS BE, COOL. HOWEVER SAVAGE YOU MIGHT BE, GROWING UP BRINGS WITH IT RESPONSIBILITIES AND PUTS AN END TO MOST OF THE ENERGY WASTING, SENSELESS FUN YOU HAVE AS A KID. THE MOST COMMON WAY TO PROTECT YOURSELF FROM BECOMING A MIDDLE CLASS BOULEVARDER, WHEN IS TO PARTY HARD ON THE WEEKENDS. SNIFF AS MUCH BLONDS & CHRONIC AND DRINK AS MUCH LADBACK LEMONADE AS THE HUMAN BODY CAN TOLERATE. IT WORKS. BUT IT ISN'T SATISFYING. YOU WANT TO LEAVE A MARK, YOU WANT TO SAY FUCK THE WORLD. THAT'S WHEN YOU BECOME A VANDAL. THERE ARE MANY DIFFERENT WAYS OF SPENDING YOUR WEEKENDS AS AN AMATEUR VANDAL. THERE IS THE RANDOMLY THASHING EVERYTHING YOU MEET ON THE STREET TYPE OF VANDALISM. THAT IS THE MOST COMMON AND EASY TO DO STYLE. I PREFER MORE PLANNED, URBAN TERRORISM LIKE JOYRIDING AND GRABFESTZ. AERIAL RUSHING ACTIVITIES THAT CAN ONLY BE DONE BY PROS. ANOTHER MORE CASUAL STYLE IS PARTYCHECKING. YOU GO TO A PRIVATE PARTY YOU'RE NOT REALLY INVITED TO, BUT, LIKE, HEARD ABOUT. AS SOON AS THEY RUN OUT OF BEER YOUR JOB BEGINS. STUFF CHEESECAKE IN THE WCR, SET THE DOG ON FIRE AND START A FOODFIGHT. LET YOUR IMAGINATION RUN WILD. ACT LIKE YOUR SHOES. JUST DO IT. VANDALISM HAS NO RULES. IT'S AN ART-FORM. YOU CAN DO IT ANYWHERE AND TO ANYTHING. IF YOU DON'T WANT TO GET OUT OF THE HOUSE, PICK UP THE PHONE AND BUG PEOPLE. IF YOU WANT JOYRIDING IN THE MIDDLE OF THE DAY GO TO YOUR LOCAL CARBONATE. TAKE THE NEWEST BEANER FOR A TEST SPIN AND BRING IT BACK TWO DAYS LATER. BE CREATIVE HAVE SOME FUN AND LET SOMEONE ELSE PAY FOR IT. THAT'S WHAT LIFE IS ALL ABOUT.

BY ROMI SIZE

Before I start I would like to thank Jay and all of the Atmosphere Crew for letting me do what I do best.

Welcome to Trade Secrets.

This is a new page talking about the ins and outs of the studio side of things. In each edition I will share one or two trade secrets surrounding the know how on making music. Also you will have the opportunity to write in and ask questions about equipment about equipment, trouble shooting & techniques etc. the object of this page is to share ideas and trade secrets so the music can progress and reach new parameters (I hope). On this debut edition I will keep things short and neat, so you can really have a think about what this page is about. In next months edition I will be talking about mixing & mixing decks.

& DJ MANPI SWIFT

When did you get the inspiration to DJ?

From when I used to listen to House and Acid music and pirate radio stations such as Centre Forces and Sun Rise.

Who gave you the inspiration to DJ?

One time I was watching telly and I remember seeing a DJ scratching on some decks and though, "Yeah, I'd like to get into that". When I started raving it was like Grooverider and Fabio, they were the top men on the scene.

Who else have you played for, besides Kool FM and Promises?

Champsagne Bash, Desert Storm, Birmingham Institute, Roller Express and the usual big names.

What other music tastes do you have?

I like a lot of Hip-Hop, some Snugg doggy dog and a bit of Dub as well.

What is your favourite style you drop in your set?

I can play different styles. Sometimes I play Drum & Bass and totally Drum & Bass it out, and other times I play a bit softer, I just wanna hear Baseline. As long as there is a lot of Baseline in the tunes I'm playing, I'm happy.

What are your favourite tunes within our scene?

R-Type by Jo - Tevin Turner, 31 sec by Origin Unknown, Dark Stranger on sub base and Terminator by Goldie.

Have you played abroad?

I've played over in Amsterdam and Austria and I'm over in Austria again in '95 and hopefully a few things in other countries.

Do you prefer playing radio or out in the eyes of a crowd?

Playing on the radio is just like being at home after a while, comfortable and relaxed. Playing out, you can see the crowd go mad and I think that makes you draw tunes and mix better, you start calling out mixes. So I think playing out I like best for that reason.

Where do you shop for your vinyl?

Black Market and Lucky Spin.

Any embarrassing moments?

Once I finished a mix and took the wrong record off!

Have you made any tunes? Any plans to?

Yeah, I've just done a track entitled "Trust", and a remix of DJ Buzz's "Slave" (check the Alison Williams sample out in "Trust" wicked tune...DJNO). A lot of things planned for '95, no label name decided yet.

What DJs do you rate?

Brooke, Mickey Finn, Trace, Fon, SL, Darren Jay, Grooverider and all the boys on Kool FM. Fandels is a personal favourite.

What Promoters do you rate?

Fandelled, Goldie, Andy G., Dileija, Hype, Roni Size, Kust, Trace.

What Promoters do you rate?

V.I.P., Champsagne Bash and Jungle Fever, they're the top Promoters.

What makes a good Promoter in your eyes?

One who pays good money, who is polite and lets you know where you stand from the start.

Are you with an Agency?

No, just Kool FM.

What do you think of Jungle hitting mainstream?

I think there's money to be made with some big labels getting involved. More and more people are listening to it, people I see who would never dream of listening to this music are even saying, "Yeah, Jungle's alright". Any plans for the future?

To get out on the circuit properly and in the studio a lot.

Where did you get your name from?

From when I used to scratch. I used to be called Cool Hand Swift when I first came to Kool FM but for obvious reasons I had to lose the Cool hand bit. When did you first get involved with Kool FM?

2 years ago.

Words for up and coming?

Just keep it up mate!
